

VOICES OF WOMEN IN HIGHER EDUCATION

Women's Policy Forum, in conjunction with other organizations concerned about women and girls in Tarrant County, invites you to attend a series of evening programs in 2010.

Dr. Elva LeBlanc, President
Northwest Campus of Tarrant County College
"Higher Education's New Leadership"

Co-sponsor

American Association of University Women (AAUW)
Tarrant County, Northeast Tarrant County, and Arlington Branches

Wednesday Evening, April 7, 2010

5:30 to 7 pm

Dinner and Speaker - $20 at the door

Trinity River Campus of Tarrant County College
300 Trinity Campus Circle, Fort Worth

Action Suite, 4th floor, Trinity Building

PARKING: Enter the parking garage at the Cherry Street portal and park as close to the building entrance as possible. ...Greeters and signs will direct you to the dinner.

To Register: Email Susan Fine (finesusan@sbcglobal.net) by March 31st.

Plan to bring a guest to each of these evening events.

Your guest will thank you for it.

These programs promise to enlighten and inform our members about issues important to women and at the same time as they will provide networking opportunities with co-sponsoring organizations.

$20 for each event, cash bar as permitted.

Next Evening Series Programs:

Wednesday Evening, June 9, 2010, 5:30 to 7 pm

Speaker: Malinda L. Seymore, Professor of Law

"International Adoption: There Are Three Sides to Every Story"

Location: Texas Wesleyan School of Law

Co-sponsor: Diversity Committee of the Tarrant County Bar Association)

Wednesday evening, September 15, 5:30 to 7 pm

Speaker: Dr. Joanne Green, Chair Political Science Department

Location: Texas Christian University

Room Smith 104A (bldg. east of the library) - visitor parking available

Wednesday evening, November (TBD)

Speaker: Dr. Myrtle Bell

Location: University of Texas at Arlington